Do You Think For Yourself?

Or do you open your mouth like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you?

When an intelligent thinking woman, in need of relief from weakness, nervousness, pain and suffering, then it means much to her that there is one tried and true home medicine of known composition, sold by druggists for the cure of women's ills.

The makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for the cure of weak, nervous, run-down, over-worked, debilitated, pain-racked women, knowing this medicine to be made up of ingredients, every one of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the leading and standard authorities of the several schools of practice, are perfectly willing, and in fact, are only too glad to print, as they do, the formula, or list of ingredients, of which it is composed, in plain English, on every bottle-wrapper.

The formula of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will bear the most critical examination of medical experts, for it contains no alcohol, narcotics, harmful, or habit-forming drugs, and no agent enters into it that is not highly recommended by the most advanced and leading medical teachers and authorities of their several schools of practice. These authorities recommend the ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for the cure of exactly the same ailments for which this world-famed medicine is advised.

No other medicine for women's ills has any such professional endorsement as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has received, in the unqualified recommendation of each of its several ingredients by scores of leading medical men of all the schools of practice. Is such an endorsement not worthy of your consideration?

A booklet of ingredients, with numerous authoritative professional endorsements by the leading medical authorities of this country, will be mailed free to any one sending name and address with request for same. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

PAIN
Pain in the head—pain anywhere, has its cause. Pain is congestion, pain is blood pressure—nothing else usually. At least, so says Dr. Shoop, and to prove it he has created a little pink tablet. That tablet—called Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—causes blood pressure away from pain centers. Headache is charming, pleasantly delightful. Gently, though safely, it surely equalizes the blood circulation.
If you have a headache, it's blood pressure. If it's painful periods with women, same cause. If you are sleepless, restless, nervous, it's blood congestion—blood pressure. That surely is a certainty for Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets stop it in 20 minutes, and the tablets simply distribute the unnatural blood pressure.
Bruise your finger and doesn't it get red, and swell, and pain you? Of course it does. It's congestion, blood pressure. Dr. Shoop's Headache Tablets—always. It's simply Common Sense.
We sell at 25 cents, and cheerfully recommend

WOMAN KILLS RIVAL.

Shortly after 6 o'clock last night Mrs. Annie E. Maith, wife of John E. Maith, engineer at Skinner's dry dock, Baltimore, came into the Southern police station and startled the officer in charge by declaring:

"My God, I have shot a woman who broke up my home."

The lieutenant sent policemen to the home of Mrs. Sallie E. Brown, a widow, in Knox court. Upon entering the parlor they found Mrs. Brown sitting dead in her chair with blood streaming from two bullet wounds in her forehead.

Mrs. Maith had a divorce suit pending against her husband, but yesterday afternoon paid the counsel fee for his attorney. Upon seeking him to tell him what she had done, in hope of reconciliation, she finally went to the Brown home, and hearing voices, entered the house. Maith hurried away, leaving the widow to be bitterly denounced by his wife, who vehemently upbraided her for stealing her husband and breaking up his home.

Mrs. Brown answered rather ardently, declaring that she preferred to hold on to the man, and finally so aroused the angered wife that the wife drew a pistol from her satchel and fired two shots in rapid succession, killing the other woman before she had a chance to run.
Mrs. Maith then hastened to the station, where, after she surrendered, she broke down and wept hysterically.
Maith has disappeared. He has been married for about fifteen years. Their married life had been happy, though childless, until he became infatuated with Mrs. Brown.
The widow, it is said, some time ago bought Brown a suit of clothes and an overcoat out of money she received as insurance on the life of her husband, who was a Baltimore and Ohio engineer. Mrs. Brown had three children, who are being cared for by an aid society.

LINGERING COLD.

Withstand Other Treatment But Quickly Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"Last winter I caught a very severe cold which lingered for weeks," says J. Urquhart, of Zephyr, Ontario. "My cough was very dry and harsh. The local dealer recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and guaranteed it, so I gave it a trial. One small bottle of it cured me. I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have ever used." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

BANK ROBBED.

The State Bank at Clinton, Illinois, was held up and robbed of $2,200 in coin shortly before 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon by two men, who escaped.

It was a few minutes after closing time when the men appeared in the bank and, with drawn revolvers, forced President William Argo, Cashier Murphy, and Bookkeeper John Young to enter the big vault which they locked.

The bulk of the money had already been placed in the currency safe, in the vault, and the time-lock had been set, but $2,200 in gold and silver remained on the counter.

This the robbers shoveled into a bag and took with them to the Hotel Henion, where they had engaged a room. They had arranged the money in rolls, so that it could be easily carried, and were about to leave the hotel, when officers learned of their presence and attempted to break in the door.

Before they succeeded, however, the robbers jumped from a window to an adjoining roof, taking only $700 in gold, and leaving $1,500 in silver in the room. It was dark when the men escaped, and all trace of them was lost.

Charles Parker, collector for the bank, was the only person who knew the combination to the vault, and after a short search he was found and hurried to the assistance of the imprisoned men. When Parker opened the vault door the three men were almost suffocated.

YOUNG WOMAN KILLED.

Miss Ella Fryer, a girl seventeen years old, was called to the door of her home in Mecklenburg county, N. C., shortly after dark last night and shot to death by an unidentified man.

A moment before the shooting a man's voice was heard outside the house calling some one to come to the door. A young sister of Miss Ella Fryer answered the summons. The voice was heard in the darkness, "I want to see Ella."

The little sister returned and told the elder sister, who, suspecting no danger, stepped to the door. As she appeared in the doorway a gun was fired and the girl fell to the floor dead, while those within heard the crash of the backshot as it struck the woodwork of the door.

The girl had numerous admirers, and it is believed that one of these, prompted possibly by jealousy, committed the deed. A searching party was quickly formed, but has discovered no clue so far.

WIFE SUSPECTED.
John Snyder, a German, living about three miles from South Hill, Va., was killed Saturday night, and his wife is under arrest charged with murdering him. Mrs. Snyder and her husband were alone at the time of the shooting.
Mrs. Snyder rushed into a neighbor's house about 9 o'clock Saturday night and said her husband had shot himself. A doctor was summoned immediately, but Snyder was dead when the physician reached the house.
An autopsy was held, and the coroner's jury returned a verdict against Mrs. Snyder. The testimony showed that Snyder and his wife did not live happily together. The woman's testimony was very conflicting. A druggist testified that she had recently tried to buy strychnine from him. Snyder was shot in the head, the empty shell from the gun being found in a bureau drawer. Snyder was twenty-eight years old and his wife is fifty. She had been married twice before.
